

Letter of Recommendation for Applications Submitted for the Vienna PhD School of Informatics

General Information

The Vienna PhD School of Informatics is an international PhD School. Students for this full-time program are recruited world-wide. All courses are held in English. Decisions about which students will be selected for the PhD School are made by the PhD School Committee. A selection of the admitted students may receive a scholarship. The PhD School Committee would like to thank everybody who meets an applicant's request for a recommendation letter to accompany his/her application. These letters, along with certificates documenting the applicant's academic achievements, form an important decision-making basis for the PhD School Committee. Please send this letter to phdschool@informatik.tuwien.ac.at.

Name of the Candidate:

Referee's name:

Position:

Subject:

University:

Address:

Since when and in what capacity have you known the applicant?

The applicant is/was among the best students/doctoral students:

- top 5% top 10% top 20% top 30% no assessment possible

How does the applicant stand out in academic and personal terms and how would you assess his/her potential?

Additional information that could be of importance to the committee's decision:

Degree of approval:

- Empathic approval Approval Conditional approval

Place, Date

Referee's signature, stamp or seal