Letter of Recommendation for applications submitted for the Doctoral College on Resilient Embedded Systems.

General Information:

The Doctoral College on Resilient Embedded Systems is funded by the Austrian BMBWF and run jointly by TU Wien and FH Technikum Wien. Students for the program are recruited world-wide. All courses are held in English.

Decisions about which students will be selected for the Doctoral College are made by the Board of the Doctoral College. The admitted students will receive a funded doctoral position. The Board of the Doctoral College would like to thank everybody who meets an applicant's request for a recommendation letter to accompany his/her application. These letters, along with certificates documenting the applicant's academic achievements, form an important decision-making basis for the DC Board. Please send this letter to DC-ResilientEmbeddedSystems@informatik.tuwien.ac.at and mention the candidate's name in the subject of your e-mail.
